

Tajikistan Report on Presentation

Sunday the 13th of November “The Foundation for a Better Life” in Tajikistan conducted a big event in Dushanbe Serena Hotel’s Social Hall. The participants were people from poor families who are unemployed, students from vulnerable families, and high school pupils. The FBL Tajikistan had organized this event and had prepared a set of presentations to show these people how they can make a better future for themselves and their families.

In the beginning the MC, a young lady, opened the ceremony with her eloquent welcoming speech. She gave the speech to the director of FBL Tajikistan, Mr. Ahmadbekov Sirojiddin, who welcomed the guests and briefly explained about the Foundation for a Better Life. Here after, the volunteer of FBL Tajikistan – Mr. Mamadzamir Mamadzamirov conducted the FBL Tajikistan’s presentation. Mr. Mamadzamirov shortly told about the FBL history; explained the main goal and the working process of the foundation; showed success stories of FBLT beneficiaries; and introduced several institutions that provide vocational trainings.

Master of Ceremonies
Qubotbekova Sitora

Director of FBL Tajikistan
Ahmadbekov Sirojiddin

Volunteer of FBLT - Presenter
Mamadzamirov Mamadzamir

After the FBL Tajikistan's presentation, the first guest speaker – Mr. Amirbekzoda Mehrobsho, the deputy head of the Labor and Employment Department, expressed his gratitude to FBL Tajikistan and told about the departments mission, which is very similar to FBL Tajikistan's goal – Alleviating poverty. Moreover, he told about the vocational trainings that they have and which are with low price. On the end Mr. Amirbekzoda mentioned to sign a memorandum for cooperating.

The next guest speaker, who introduced their institution and explained about the courses, price, duration, and effectiveness of the vocational trainings and short courses that the institution provides was the head of the School of Professional and Continuing Education of University of Central Asia – Mr. Fraidunov Farrukhsho. Signing a memorandum between our institutions was part of his speech as well.

Another guest speaker who introduced the CISCO Networking Academy was the Mr. Muminov Amrullo – Manager and Instructor of the Academy. He introduced the IT courses that their institution provides. The wish of cooperating existed in his speech to.

The final institution that participated in the event as guest speaker was the Management and Development Institution of Singapore in Dushanbe. The head of the institution – Mr. Mukhtorov Zayniddin expressed his gratitude to FBL Tajikistan and readiness for co-working with FBL Tajikistan, and passed the microphone to the manager of the marketing department of the MDIS for conducting their presentation. Ms. Mirsaidova Anna – the presenter, introduced the institution and in few words explained about the departments and short-term courses of their institution. In addition, she told about the prices and the discount for students from poor families.

The closing speech was given to the chairman of the Foundation for a Better Life in the United States of America – Mr. Jalal Sultan. After expressing gratitude to the workers and volunteers of FBLT, guest speakers, and audience, Mr. Jalal Sultan gave a motivational speech which won the hearts of the participants.

After the presentation there was provided a coffee break during which the participants had opportunity to discuss the information they got from the presentations, ask questions; take photos; apply for FBL Tajikistan projects and and register for vocational trainings.

Overall, the event went perfect. The total amount of participants was 260 from which mostly were ladies. From the graph you can find out the percentage of the group of the audiences.

